A SHORT PRESENTATION

Strasbourg has a rich architectural heritage, a tradition of hospitality and rich museums. Come and discover the city which has an exceptional quality of life !

Strasbourg, the 7th city of France, prefecture of the Low Rhine, is the intellectual and economic capital of Alsace. Its privileged geographical situation as a center of international communications and its position of Latin sentinel by the Rhine as well as its rich history, ensure its exceptional importance. It was therefore natural that Strasbourg was chosen as the home of European institutions.

History

The Alsace Wine Route takes you past some of the world's most famous wine-farming estates. The vineyards cover thousands of acres, forming a magnificent panorama as they climb the sunny slopes of the Vosges, past medieval villages and ancient castles.

The Comité Interprofessionnel des Vins d'Alsace (CIVA – a trade association for Alsace wines)<http://www.vinsalsace.com>

You can order a map of the Wine Route in our Brochures section.

The Museums of Alsace tell of life in the region, of its inhabitants, of the people of the region and from elsewhere. From traditions to technology, paintings to fabrics, all are part of the past, present and future of this region now firmly committed to Europe and to the world.
